

Addendum

David F. Freschi

You left this life

Just a child, my lips on yours

My breath worthless

You followed me through my days.

I ran from you, driving, or trying to,

You from my dreams- futile effort

Till that day I stopped

And looked upon your face

Felt the smile, you knew

My best, not enough but my best

And I allowed your touch and

You are with me still, an angel
